Employment Background Checks: Facility Operators/ Employees and Family Child Care Operators/ Employees

Rhode Island Department of Children, Youth and Families

Policy: 900.0035

Effective Date: January 6, 1986 Revised: April 26, 2012 Version: 2

In accordance with Rhode Island General Law (RIGL) 40-13.2, any person seeking to operate a residential care facility, child care center, family child care home or community based program which is licensed by the Department, submits an affidavit to the Department providing information relating to individual employment history including a list of all positions held within three years prior to application for licensing.

RIGL 40-13.2 also mandates the person operating a facility which is licensed or registered with the Department to require all persons seeking employment in positions which involve supervisory or disciplinary power over or routine contact with a child(ren) without the presence of other employees to submit a similar affidavit. This affidavit must be submitted to the employer prior to employment. The Department assumes responsibility for ensuring employment background checks for family child care operators and employees.
